

Join the ALEPH Network

The ALEPH Network is an alliance of organizations, individuals, shuls, and more at the vibrant cutting edge of Judaism. The ALEPH Network is not a denomination. It's a sign that the person or institution to which it is attached is doing innovative, heart-centered, spiritual, meaningful work.

Benefits

There are a wide variety of benefits of being part of the ALEPH network. Some highlights include:

- Connection to ALEPH as an organization as well other network member communities
- Access to shared educational and liturgical resources from ALEPH and member communities
- Discounted rates and priority registration for an array of different ALEPH programming and learning opportunities, including Tikshoret, ALEPH's online education program
- Knowledge that you, like ALEPH founder Rabbi Zalman Schachter-Shalomi z"l, are helping to sustain the vision of Judaism renewed;

Who Should Join

- Innovative, creative communities seeking to live Judaism authentically
- Communities led by an ALEPH musmach or OHALAH member
- Organizations and Individuals doing the work of renewing Judaism
- Individuals doing the work of renewing Judaism: teachers, chaplains, etc;
- Hillels, Moishe Houses, independent minyanim;
- Rabbis Without Borders (RWB) fellows, who are naturally doing creative, cutting-edge Jewish work which brings Torah to those who thirst;
- Communities led by RWB fellows;
- ...and more!

Membership Types

There are four levels at which one can participate in the Network:

- 1 Community Network Membership:
$36 per member unit in the congregation/community
- 2 Organizational Network Membership:
minimum of $360 per year
- 3 Individual Network Membership:
minimum of $180 per year
- 4 Friends of ALEPH:
minimum of $360 per year

For more information on these Membership levels and to apply to join the network, visit aleph.org/join-the-aleph-network.

